St Ann's Degree College, Mehdiapatnam, girls came up with a brilliant performance to take the winner's trophy home at the Osmania University Inter-Collegiate Basketball tournament that was organised by the St Francis College for Women at their indoor stadium in Begumpet, Hyderabad. In the final, both the teams — St Ann's and St Francis — started well with scores ticking for both the sides. Their defenders too displayed grit as the final turned out to be a feast for the spectators.

However as the game progressed, a few missed chances and a few throws missing the basket helped St Ann's wrest advantage. Later, they capitalised on it and made full use of their opponents' errors to surge ahead and eventually won the match by a seven-point margin. The final scoreline read 42-35.

Meanwhile in the match for third place, Loyola College came out blazing right from the first

AMATEUR SNEHA HOLES AN ALBATROSS, CLINCHES TITLE

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Visakhapatnam: Amateur Sneha Singh played one of the best nine holes stretches in the history of the Hero Women's pro golf Tour and clinched the title at the East Point golf club on Friday.

Trailing Jahnavi Bakshi by two shots after the second round, Sneha slipped further after a bogey-bogey start. Jahnavi birdied the second and the lead swelled to five shots.

Still, Sneha won by three shots, as she shot 7 under 29 on the back nine. The nine-hole run had four birdies and the first ever albatross on the Hero WPGA as Sneha holed her wedge shot from just over 120 yards.

Sneha ended at 10 under 206, Jahnavi, four-time winner in 2021, was second at 7 under 208. Ridhima Dilawari (72) was third at 2 under 214. While Sneha took the trophy, Jahnavi picked up the winning cheques as the top professional.

Jahnavi dropped shots on two par 6s and managed only two birdies on the home stretch. She ended with 71 for her third successive under par round. However, Sneha was in sizzling form after the turn.

After birdies on 10th and 13th she holed her second shot on the Par 5 14th for an albatross which put her back in contention. Birdies on 15th and 17th sealed her first win of 2022 and her fourth on Hero WPGA while still an amateur.

Sneha has now won at least one title each year since 2019. Hyderabad based Sneha, who started playing at the Royal Calcutta golf club before she was four, is coached by her father Sanjay Kumar Singh, a Class A certified golf teaching professional and a former professional golfer on the men's Indian Tour. Apart from her pro wins, she has won both the All India Juniors and the All India ladies amateur Championship. Gaurika Bishnoi (72) was fourth at even par 216.

Final scores (After 54 holes): Sneha Singh (A, 70, 70, 66); Jahnavi Bakshi (66, 78, 73); 214; Ridhima Dilawari (69, 73, 72); 216; Gaurika Bishnoi (76, 68, 72); 212; Rhea Parvati (72, 69, 76); 218. Senior Amateur: 73, 73.
