

St. Ann's College for Women
(Autonomous), Affiliated to Osmania University,
Accredited 'A+' Grade by NAAC (3rd Cycle),
College with Potential for Excellence by UGC,
ISO 9001: 2015-ISO 14001: 2015
Hyderabad- 500 028, India

Report on the student attributes facilitated by the Institution

Report on various student attributes facilitated by St. Ann's College for Women

Higher education plays a crucial role in shaping students' intellectual, personal, and professional growth. The report highlights the key attributes developed through higher education, including academic skills, critical thinking, leadership abilities, communication skills, adaptability, and social consciousness. It also discusses the role of Institution in fostering an inclusive environment and promoting holistic development. The college aims at preparing students for the challenges of the modern world.

Introduction:

St. Ann's acts as a platform for students to acquire knowledge, skills, and attitudes that extend beyond mere academic learning.

Academic Skills:

Students are provided with specialized knowledge and expertise in their chosen fields. Undergraduate and postgraduate programs equip students with foundational and advanced academic skills, such as research methodology, analytical thinking, problem-solving, and subject-specific knowledge. Laboratory, Technical skills are enhanced in practical classes, workshops, internship and project works, Field visits & case studies.

Critical Thinking:

Our college encourages critical thinking by promoting intellectual curiosity, analysis, and evaluation of information. Students learn to question assumptions, consider various perspectives, and make informed decisions, enabling them to navigate complex challenges in their personal and professional lives. The college has established Institute Innovation council under MHRD GoI where in students are given

St. Ann's College for Women
(Autonomous), Affiliated to Osmania University,
Accredited 'A+' Grade by NAAC (3rd Cycle),
College with Potential for Excellence by UGC,
ISO 9001: 2015-ISO 14001: 2015
Hyderabad- 500 028, India

exposure to problem solving through Design thinking workshops, sessions on IPR, Design challenges, Ideathons & Hackathons

Leadership Abilities:

Through extracurricular activities, student organizations and Clubs like Rotaract Club of St. Ann's

College club, Committee promotes leadership development programs and nurture leadership qualities among students. These experiences empower students to take on leadership roles, exhibit initiative, and collaborate effectively within diverse teams. Also, Student Quality Assurance Cell of St. Ann's offers a platform to showcase their leadership qualities

Communication Skills:

Effective communication, both written and verbal, is emphasized at all learning levels. Students engage in public speaking, debates, and written assignments that enhance their ability to articulate ideas clearly and persuasively. Value added courses are also offered to enhance these soft skills.

Adaptability:

The rapidly changing global landscape demands adaptability from individuals. We provide an environment that fosters flexibility and resilience, preparing students to handle evolving circumstances and novel challenges. The college has taken various initiatives to help students related to the culture and heritage of our country and connect with their roots, by inculcating the importance of protecting, preserving and propagating India's culture, socio economic diversities and inclusiveness is reflected in all academic activities paving way for an integrated campus community.

Social Consciousness:

Social responsibility and community engagement is emphasized by encouraging students to be socially conscious, empathetic, and contribute positively to society through volunteer work, community service, and sustainability initiatives under co-

St. Ann's College for Women
(Autonomous), Affiliated to Osmania University,
Accredited 'A+' Grade by NAAC (3rd Cycle),
College with Potential for Excellence by UGC,
ISO 9001: 2015-ISO 14001: 2015
Hyderabad- 500 028, India

curricular activity courses like Outreach, Environment education, NSS, NCC. Also, every department organizes community outreach activities in nearby communities and villages.

Inclusivity and Diversity:

- Our college plays a vital role in creating an inclusive and diverse environment in the campus. We celebrate diversity, encourage tolerance, and expose students to different cultures, viewpoints, and backgrounds, preparing them for a multicultural world.

Commemorative days of Harmony like Rastriya Ekta Diwas, National Integration Day, International Peace Day are observed.

- The National Anthem is sung at the end of all the institutional events.
- Dedicated place is available for prayer of different faiths.

St. Ann's College for Women
(Autonomous), Affiliated to Osmania University,
Accredited 'A+' Grade by NAAC (3rd Cycle),
College with Potential for Excellence by UGC,
ISO 9001: 2015-ISO 14001: 2015
Hyderabad- 500 028, India

- The Physical Education department organizes inter-regional sports events and provides an opportunity for students to interact with each other and build friendship while engaging in a healthy and fun activity.
- Extension activities undertaken in the tribal communities.
- Intercollegiate competitions like Essay writing, Painting, Singing, Dancing, organised on themes pertaining to Glory and Integrity of India

Holistic Development:

We promote holistic development by considering students' physical, emotional, and mental well-being. Counseling services, health programs, and sports facilities are often provided to support students' overall growth and development.

Career Readiness:

Beyond academic knowledge, our college helps students develop practical skills relevant to their chosen career paths. Internships, workshops, and career counseling services prepare students for the job market and professional success.

Conclusion:

St. Ann's College for Women serves as a catalyst for nurturing various student attributes essential for personal growth and career success. The academic skills, critical thinking, leadership abilities, communication proficiency, adaptability, social consciousness, and inclusive mindset cultivated in higher education contribute significantly to students' comprehensive development and prepare them to thrive in an ever-changing world. The continuous evolution of HEIs in shaping well-rounded individuals remains crucial to the progress of societies and economies alike.