MOTTO: Heart to God, Hand to man

SAHHARA (St. Ann's Helping Hands & Reaching Arms) is an outreach program for students to understand the communities around them, identify themselves with its aspirations, needs, problems, resources and to reach out with a helping hand.

Over the years the involvement, commitment, the range of activities have grown exponentially with club such as Rotaract club of St. Ann's College under the umbrella of SAHHARA. Focus areas of health, education, empowerment of women, environment and leadership development have been identified apart from other spheres of social service. Activities are planned and executed with participation from staff and students. The schedule of activities has been systematized throughout the academic year in such a way that a sizeable number of undergraduate students with staff advisors, reach out to the community-lending a helping hand in their own small ways.

True to our motto, Heart to God, Hand to man we are striving to continue our service to the community with increased efforts so as to reach out to a larger group.
