Awareness and Undertaking on Policies with Zero Tolerance

A skit representing the college's strict Anti-Ragging policy was performed by first, second and third year SQAC students. It was held on 10th March 2021. The skit was directed by Nadia Baig (B.Com IFA). The skit helped the students to have a greater and better understanding about the strict anti-ragging policy in the college. The skit was performed in such a way that they showed the first years being ragged by the second year students and finally the final year students came to the rescue of the new comers and defended them by stressing on the strict anti-ragging policy of the college and explained to them the unethical nature of ragging which is highly deplorable. The skit was highly appreciated and applauded by the students and lecturers as well.

Awareness and Undertaking on Policies with Zero Tolerance

SQAC had posters made upon on anti-ragging and they were put up around the campus and near every department to create awareness about how ragging. The college posters had messages of strong opposition against ragging and mention of serious action that would be taken against the students who take part in ragging. Along with the posters, an anti - ragging skit was performed for all the batches of freshers by the seniors to show that we strongly are against ragging and to help create a friendly feeling amongst the students.

An awareness programme was also held on October 7th, 2021 where the guest speakers were the members of the Legal Awareness Cell, Nampally - Advocate Mrs. Raisa, Advocate Mr. Devender Reddy and Advocate Mrs. Madhuri. They spoke about the law for the protection of children from extensive harsh scenarios like child labour. They also commented on the legal actions that canbe taken place against the offenders who rag the students and extended their hand forward to help any of those who have been ragged so that legal action canbe taken against them.

Awareness and Undertaking on Policies with Zero Tolerance

Ragging is the term used for the so-called "initiation ritual" practised in higher education institutions. Ragging is a subset of bullying. Unlike various complex forms of bullying, ragging is easily recognisable. To avoid this, we have initiated an Anti-Ragging skit.

As the freshers have joined the college, it is important for them to feel safe on campus. To initiate this safeness SQAC Team has performed a Anti Ragging skit before performing there was a flash mob to attract the students in the quadrangle, after the dance the skit had been started, the main Aim of the skit is to raise awareness about the raging and their consequences to the students and how they should behave with juniors by welcoming them with joy and friendliness.
