Certificate of Achievement

Nazia Fathima

has completed the following course:

Evidence and Data Collection for Problem Solving University of Leeds and Institute of Coding

On this course, you've been introduced to key data concepts, learning how to solve simple, everyday problems using data. You've discovered data ethics and the restrictions that exist in using other people's data and learned how to present data in a meaningful way that's easy to understand through data visualisation techniques. To give real-world context to your learning, you've examined these data concepts through the case study of a small business owner.
