NCC cadets of Telugu States shine at 'All India Thal Sainik Camp'

Hyderabad: The 12-day 'Thal Sainik Camp' (exclusively for Army Wing of NCC) conducted at New Delhi under the aegis of Director General, NCC ended on September 28. Two contingents, a total of 40 senior/junior divisions (boys) and 40 senior/junior wing (girls) cadets of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana directorate have successfully participated along with associate NCC officers from all nine NCC groups.

Being an all India level camp, cadets of all 17 directorates across the country has participated in the event. Inter group competitions were held at Secunderabad by AP and Telangana directorate in the month of July 2018. All selected cadets have gone through an organized training in various activities like obstacle training, judging distances and field signals, map reading, tent pitching and precision shooting. On successful completion of their training, these cadets were fielded to all India Thal Sainik Camp at New Delhi.

A total of 7 gold medals and 22 silver medals were won by the cadets of both contingents. Air Commodore NN Reddy, Deputy Director General of NCC directorate appreciated the cadets on their arrival to Secunderabad on October 1, 2018 at Bis Training Ground.
